AIRPORT BOOKS

WITH GREAT FORESIGHT THE STORY OF CHRISTCHURCH INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

With Great Foresight is the story of Christchurch International Airport. From humble beginnings in the 1930s when the Christchurch City Council decided the city required a dedicated municipal aerodrome, to today where it is the second largest international airport in New Zealand processing 5.5 million passengers and around 100,000 tones of freight annually, and providing employment for 4,500 people.

The story highlights the efforts of a number of administrators, local politicians and successful businessmen and women with the long-term development of the region and the South Island in mind. Copiously illustrated with over 300 photographs
